THE BOOKS FOR CHILDREN UP TO TEN YEARS OF AGE

Selected and described by CLARA W. HUNT

Superintendent of the Children's Department of the Brooklyn Public Library

Picture Books

BABIES a year old are not too young to enjoy pictures. Indeed, the child's taste for good books should begin in babyhood. Do not allow little children to see ugly and vulgar pictures. Even the "harmless" but empty books are a waste of time and money. Buy the positively good, like the following:

Mother Goose and other

Nursery Rhymes and Jingles

Brooke, L. Leslie

NURSERY RHYME PICTURE BOOK.

Warne. $2.00

The Man in the Moon, Humpty Dumpty, Baa, Baa, etc. Large pictures liked by children.

Ediscott, Randolph

Y DIDDLE DIDDLE PICTURE BOOK. Quarto edition.

Warne. $2.25

This contains "Hey Diddle, Diddle" and "Baby Mine," "Where Are You Going, My Pretty Maid?" "A Frog He Would a-Wooing Go," "The Frog Jumps Over the Parson's Gate." These may be obtained singly in paper covers at 60c. each. Ediscott's pictures are delightfully and wholly humorous and his art appeals to the young children.

ICTURE BOOK NO. 2. Quarto edition.

Warne. $2.25

This contains "Three Jovial Huntsmen," "Sing Song of Sixpence," "The Queen of Hearts," "The Mer's Boy." These may be obtained singly in paper covers at 60c. each. Do not fail to include at least one of Goldsmith's famous picture books in the baby's library.

Crane, Walter

THE BABY'S BOUQUET, a fresh bunch of old rhymes and tunes. Warne. $1.50

Here are "Polly, Put the Kettle On," "Hot Cross Buns," "Lucy Locket," "London Bridge," etc., set to music. Walter Crane's pictures are very decorative, but this and "The Baby's Opera" are better suited to children four years of age and older than to "The Baby."

THE BABY'S OPERA, a book of old rhymes with new dresses, the music by the earliest masters. Warne. $1.50

This includes "The Mulberry Bush," "Ding Dong Bell," "Dickory Dock," "I Saw Three Ships," "Tom the Piper's Son," etc.

Greenaway, Kate

THE MARIGOLD GARDEN. Warne. $2.50

Kate Greenaway's pictures are quaint and charming. No nursery is complete without at least one of the picture books by this famous illustrator. For children three or four to seven or eight years old.

MOTHER GOOSE.

Warne. $1.00

A tiny book which children of three will love. Babies, however, like larger figures than the fascinating little creatures pictured here.

UNDER THE WINDOW, pictures and rhymes by Greenaway. Warne. $2.50

For children three or four to eight. This is quite as pretty as the two preceding books.

FROM "MOTHER GOOSE," ILLUSTRATED BY ARTHUR RACKHAM. The Century Co.

Horner, Sidney
EVERYDAY SONGS FROM MOTHER GOOSE, for voice and piano, set to music by Sidney Horner. illus. by Maginel Wright Enright.

 mother's wonderful voice, might enjoy them together. Includes full page pictures by Enright.

LeMair, R. Willebeek
OUR OLD NURSERY RHYMES, the original tunes
 harmonized by Alfred Moffat, illus. by LeMair.
 McKay. $3.00

LeMair's pictures are lovely in coloring and grace and show beautiful subjects. Of the four books listed here "Little Songs of Long Ago" and "Our Old Nursery Rhymes" are best. Buy both of these volumes for the baby if you can. The whole family will love them.

This volume contains "Little Jack Horner," "I Love
 My Little Sister," "Jack and Jill," "Pat-a-Cake,"
 "Humpty Dumpty," "Three Little Kittens," "Mary
 Had a Little Lamb," "Dickory Dock," "Yankee Doodle."

LITTLE SONGS OF LONG AGO, more old nursery rhymes, the original tunes harmonized by Alfred Moffat, illus. by LeMair. McKay. $3.00

 twenty-five other nursery songs, with music and beautiful pictures. A condensed edition of the above entitled "Thirty old-time nursery songs" is published by Nelson at 75c. Pictures in the latter

Fairy Tale Picture Books

In another section will be given a list of Fairy Tales in the form of books which are not suitable primarily for their pictures. Following are picture books which take a few well-known fairy tales for their subjects. These should be bought for children from three or four to seven years of age, not, as a rule, for the youngest children.

Brooke, L. Leslie
THE GOLDEN GOOSE AND THE THREE BEARS. Warne. $2.00
 Each of the two stories included in this volume may be obtained separately in paper covers for 75c.

Brooke, L. Leslie
THREE LITTLE PIGS AND TOMMY THUMB. Warne. $2.00
 Each of the stories included in this volume may be obtained separately in paper covers for 75c.
 "The Three Bears" and "The Three Little Pigs" represent the most perfect of making pictures for little children. Wish more artists would study the figures of Leslie Brooke.

"Funny" Picture Books

MANY of the preceding picture books also are "funny," but the following belong especially in this class:

Adelborg, Ottilia
CLEAN PETER AND THE CHILDREN OF GRUBBYLEA. Longmans. $1.50

How the dirty children of Grubbylea were taken in hand by Clean Peter and made to reform.

Brooke, L. Leslie
JOHNNY CROW'S GARDEN. Warne. $2.00

A most perfect example of an ideal "funny book" for little folks. Good art and good feeling. Delightful to children and adults. Not a trace of mean, spiteful, vulgar joking. Makers of "comic supplements," take notice!

Francis, J. G.
CHEERFUL CATS. Century. $1.50
 Black-and-white outline pictures, not colored.

FROM "THE LITTLE MOTHER GOOSE." Dodd, Mead & Co.

Johnson, Margaret.

A BUNCH OF KEYS.

Dutton. $2.00

The charm of these stories lies in the fact that little pictures take the place of words wherever that could be managed by the story teller. Beginners in reading will particularly enjoy this.

Kay, C. A.

THE JOLLY OLD SHADOW MAN. Volland. 75c

Lefevre, Edicité

THE COCK, THE MOUSE AND THE LITTLE RED

HEN, illus. by Tony Sarg. Jacobs. $1.25

A story that will be popular as long as there are little children to listen to it. The pictures in this small book are as popular as the story.

Potter, Beatrix

THE PIP AND THE PATTY PAN. Warne. 75c

Beatrix Potter's story-pictures of little animals who do human things are too well known and too well loved by children to need comment. Unfortunately artists and writers of mediocre ability are imitating these books till the market is flooded with second rate stuff and little children are fed on stories of too narrowing a sameness. Even babies should have variety in their literary diet, and even Beatrix Potter is not always at her best. Buy the following if you like. These are good. They stop buying books of this sort.

Fables, Fairy Tales, Myths and Other Famous Classics

The Child's fairy tale years are apt to be from three to nine or ten years of age. All children should grow up with the best fairy tales, fables and myths—and with none but the best.

Books in Groups I and II may be bought for the younger children. Group III contains the stories more likely to appeal to children six or seven to nine or ten. However, do not take this grading too literally. Let the children themselves choose from any group.

GROUP I

Books in Group I are collections of the most familiar tales, such as Cinderella, Three Bears, Hansel and Gretel, Three Billy Goats, Gruff, etc. If you can afford the most expensive book in the group get it. All these are good, but the prices will show that some are small collections.

BOOKS FOR BOY SCOUTS

Edited by FRANKLIN K. MATHIEWS, Chief Scout Librarian

FROM "DON STRONG—PATROL LEADER," BY WILLIAM HEYLIGER. D. Appleton & Co.

This book list was compiled by Franklin K. Mathiews, Chief Scout Librarian, under the revision of the Library Commission of the Boy Scouts of America, consisting of George F. Erman, Librarian, Public Library of the District of Columbia, Washington, D. C.; Harrison Craver, Director, Engineering Societies Library, New York City; Claude G. Leland, Superintendent, Bureau of Libraries, Board of Education, New York City; Edward F. Stevens, Librarian, Pratt Institute Free Library, Brooklyn, New York. The list is offered as a catalog for the use of book-store patrons, especially scoutmasters and parents of scouts. It is hoped, too, that librarians may find it serviceable in selecting books for their scout constituency. The books on cover pretty much the whole field of a scout's reading interests, and are chiefly those which have proved themselves satisfactory.

Pathfinders and Pioneers of the Great West

The adventurous lives of the heroes of the Great West are a thrilling challenge to every red-blooded boy. Says Professor George Walter Fiske: "Let the boy emulate savage woodcraft, the woodman's keen, practiced vision, his steadiness of nerve, his contempt for pain, hardship and the weather, his power of endurance, his observation and heightened senses; his delight in out-of-door sports and joys and unfettered happiness with untroubled sleep under the stars; his calmness, self-control, emotional steadiness; his utter faithfulness in friendships; his honesty, his personal bravery."

Books That Nourish Ambition

As the boy develops, the acquisitive, productive and commercial instincts strongly assert themselves. He longs to possess, produce, achieve something for himself. This period a boy's reading becomes immensely valuable. He needs books of biography and stories of achievement, rich in broad, human experience and vigorous action, pressed in the stress and strain of "making good" in business.

Character Achievement Stories

Boys are not interested in recreational reading because of its moral benefits. The Stevenson, they read story books "not for the eloquence or character or thought, but for some quality of the brute incident." And the "quality of the brute incident" which most appeals is action. If with wholesomely thrilling stories we satisfy this demand for the exercise of the emotional muscles of the adolescent spirit, we shall find that stories such as these leave a fine and wholesome feeling in the mind, "opening new windows to the imagination, adding some line or color to the ideal of life."

"Good Turn" Story Books

Boys are eagerly responsive to the call to do good; there is room for action and appeals. Impressive proof of this is found in the willing way in which Boy Scouts do a Good Turn Daily." So, too, the boy is strongly influenced by the hero who does things. This is our hope in presenting the heroes of service. When in heroic

Character Achievement Books

Without doubt there is a most favorable period in every child's life for the reading of each book. If offered to him at just the right age, it appeals to his nature with peculiar power, often to the extent of setting him on fire; if offered at any other, it may prove interesting, but it fails to become such a potent factor in his life.—Professor Frank McMurtry.
